Copenhagen, December 17, N. S.

ON the 10th Inſtant in the Morning the young Prince Charles, only Son to his Daniſh Majeſty by the preſent Queen, died of Convulſion Fits, occaſioned by the breeding of Teeth. The King and Queen being extremely afflicted at this Loſs, retired from the Palace into a Houſe belonging to her Majeſty, where they would not be ſeen by any Perſon but their neceſſary Domeſticks. But the Body of the Prince having been carried on the 15th to Roſchild, to be interred privately in the Royal Vault there, their Daniſh Majeſties are both returned to the Palace. Baron Sparre arrived here the 11th Inſtant in the Evening, and ſet out the next Morning on his Way to Stockholm.

Cadiz, Dec. 6, N. S. Captain Mendinueta, who commanded a ſmall Squadron of Spaniſh Men of War in the Weſt-Indies, arrived here the 4th Inſtant from the Havana, with one of them called the Incendio, of Fifty Guns, having on Board the Remainder of the Treaſure belonging to the Galleons, which conſiſts of a Million and half Pieces of Eight, whereof Six hundred thouſand are for the King of Spain, and the other Nine hundred thouſand for the Account of private Merchants.

Bayonne, Dec. 17, N. S. His Excellency Mr. Stanhope Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Britannick Majeſty, arrived here this Afternoon from Seville; and will proceed from hence the 19th on his Journey to Paris.

Paris, Dec. 27, N. S. His Excellency Mr. Stanhope is expected here To-morrow from Spain. The next Day his Excellency Mr. Walpole Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King of Great Britain, intends to ſet out from hence for England.

St. James's, December 22.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Lieutenant Collonel John Winyard, of Colonel Charles Otway's Regiment of Foot in Ireland, to be Lieutenant Collonel to Brigadier James Tyrell's Regiment of Foot at Minorca, in the Room of Lieutenant Collonel Ruſſel, deceaſed; and Lieutenant Collonel William Berry, of Brigadier Stanwix's late Regiment of Foot, to be Lieutenant Collonel to Collonel Otway's Regiment of Foot.
